

GREETINGS;

March arrived following a Full Moon on 2/28 in which the Sun and Moon combined with Jupiter, signifying a speeding up of expansion, chaos and creativity. With this maniac month which primarily combines the energies of the two non-rational elements, water and fire, the unexpected should be expected with regularity.

Mars, which has rolled back to the beginning of Leo, is like a taught spring ready to move into action on 3/10. All of us, particularly those with planets in Aries and Leo, should be ready to be part of a marching band forward. For the first time since the Winter Solstice, there may be less frustration and conflict and more enthusiasm and progress.

On 3/20, the water energy of Pisces wanes as the Sun moves into Aries for the first time in one year. The lead up to the equinox contains a New Moon (3/15) and a couple of very fortunate days. One is 3/14 when the Sun and Jupiter join and the other is at the New Moon 3/15, as Uranus is joined by the Sun and Moon. Both these days are full of surprises and opportunity, and for some, revolutionary change. For those who have a sense of adventure and are prepared, this period marks a time of spectacular good fortune and inventiveness.

The last 12 days of March will shift from the chaotic feeling energy of Pisces which brings more questions than answers to the direct, decisive fire energy of Aries whose mantra seems to be "I want what I want when I want it". All of us will feel these shifts, but those with planets in Pisces, and/or Aries will reflect them with greater vibrancy. As Spring appears, change is guaranteed as the warmth of Spring removes the coldness and dormancy of winter.

Mercury begins the month in intuitive, creative Pisces and moves into fiery, honest, direct Aries. Plan your mental activities to take advantage of these very different options. Mercury meets Jupiter on 3/14, making it nearly impossible for anyone to keep a secret, or for that matter, their mouth shut. The next day 3/15, Mercury meets Uranus, the great shock wave of energy which changes everything in a twinkling of an eye. If you need any honest information from another person, this is definitely the day to ambush them with a question you have been stewing over. On 3/17 Mercury moves into Aries and joins with Mars in Leo. This is a very sexy aspect, so plan accordingly. It is also a good day for making prosperous business deals, as the action energy and the financial result are in great rapport. This is not so on 3/18 as Mercury and Saturn run amuck. Trying to solve financial and/or relationship difficulties will be impossible this day. On 3/20 the drastic energy of Pluto forms a pattern with Mercury where nothing can be discussed without hurt feelings and power struggles.

Venus begins the month in Pisces which increases the feeling function in all of us. Venus joins Uranus on 3/3 which will be a very surprising and perhaps wonderful day for the relationship and financial affairs of some. Be open and say yes to sudden and new opportunities. On 3/7 Venus enters fire sign Aries before Mercury and the Sun, helping all of us to know what is limiting us and knowing what we need to do about it. On 3/9 Venus and Saturn create friction probably in career matters and a short conflict could ensue between what is asked of you and what you want to do. On 3/11 Venus and Pluto arrange a meeting to struggle over joint finances, which often becomes a discussion between matters of value vs. cost. On 3/31 Venus moves into Taurus which heralds a time of fertility, sensuality and a love affair with Mother Earth.

In January, some people asked me what caused the earthquake in Haiti astrologically and I answered that I believe it was the change of direction of Saturn the day before. The best guess about Chile is the Moon/Mars in Leo combination. Since these events often come in threes, there may be another event in March, probably between 3/10-20 as Mars changes direction and the Sun and Uranus join together. Hopefully not.

I will be out of the office on Tuesdays starting next week, as FINALLY, it has warmed up enough to fix the horrible damage from the winter snow and freezes. If you need help, please let me know by leaving a voice mail at my office (713/520-1551).

If you want to plan the rest of your year or discuss ways to change the patterns in your life that are not serving you, please call to schedule a personal appointment.

HAPPY EQUINOX/SPRING
